In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Charles BRENDON

7370 Fountain Crest Ave, Las Vegas, NV 89113, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I may attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax needs to held accountable for the breadth of my privacy. A settlement (to me) in the amount of $10 does not send an adequate message to Equifax.

Please upgrade the amount of the proposed settlement, commensurate with the number of plaintiffs, so that everyone can be honestly compensated. 2-figures is an insult.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Sir: I have had my identity stolen and it took over a year to straighten out the mess it caused with my credit. I did not keep track of the cost in hours and aggravation that this caused me and my wife. It was especially frustrating because my wife had her identity stolen a week after mine was. Some one applied for and received over $65,000 of credit cards in our names. This was one week after we applied for credit with Bank of America. Even though we put stops on our accounts they were still trying to get duplicate accounts and cards issued. They even had the gall to put their own names on our account and cards and try to get them delivered. This needs to be stopped. Tighter security needs to be adopted. The companies who are being breached need to be held accountable to their customers. Thank you for your attention and consideration.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax has negligently exposed my personal information to hackers. The current settlement is in no way adequate. While we were originally promised a reasonable settlement, but because people actually responded to the suit, the settlement has been reduced to less than $20 per person. If this settlement is approved, equifax will continue to operate without regard for the safety of the information that they collect and sell.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I have serious misgivings about entrusting my credit monitoring to a company who was so severely breached. And the settlement payout that was supposed to compensate for hours of our time will only cover pennies on the dollar in the end. I believe this is unfair to us as consumers and a light punishment for someone we entrusted the basis of our lives too.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

David Fernandez

2500 e cary st apt 312
Richmond Va 23223

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I believe this is a very inadequate compensation they are offering. Billions are made with pur information (protecting it or losing it), billions should be reimbursed. There is no way to live normally without Equifax having your information, so we should be reimbursed and made felt reassured that our information is in good hands and cared about; not just looked at as business. Thank you, Dave F

Your Honor,

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

We need to hold this company accountable. Thanks to them, I've all but given up on keeping my personal information private. I've been notified several times that my information is now shared on the dark web. It is no longer an option to protect my information thanks to their careless disregard for my credit.

Thank you.

No attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I feel it is unfair because what will $10 do for anyone? Then, it's unfair because the initial payment announced was far more than that and affected parties rightfully agreed to that settlement amount. Why was it changed? Equifax is very able and capable of paying affected parties the initial settlement amount offered. They make enough money. Besides, it's their fault for making such a huge mistake, affecting so many people. They should be held accountable. Paying $10 seems to make we, the affected parties accountable for something far beyond our control and/or knowledge. Make them pay!

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The damage, and potential damage, caused by this data breach is worth more than literally a few dollars. For the time and effort put into keeping on top of my identity, I would expect to be paid at least a fair hourly wage. The proposed settlement would not include that. I have had one instance this year that appeared to be identity theft. It resulted in many phone inquiries and extra efforts in my part to try to protect the sanctity of my own name. Further, if part of the settlement includes the option of having credit monitoring done by the very company that incurred a massive data breach of their own, the option seems pretty clear to object to the settlement which is proposed.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Your Honor, the penalty as laid out does respect the degree of damages caused by Equifax, nor the gross negligence Equifax had in the handling of sensitive personal information of class members. Due to the rise in consumer data breaches many class members already have credit monitoring as a result of past settlements. The earmarked portion for cash awards if divided evenly among class members would be less than a dollar per person. Additionally the court should recognize that allowing Equifax to offer credit monitoring services as restitution creates a perverse incentive. Equifax itself offers monitoring services and would be the beneficiary of future data breach settlements that followed the precedent of this settlement. Note the proposed monitoring would be provided by Experian who themselves are settling a data breach (case number 8:15-cv-01592).

They have exposed me to criminals who want to exploit me. I had to put a freeze on my credit and now can not easily gain access to it. I had an emergency recently and could not remember all the info that was required to unfreeze my credit right away so I could have access to credit to get anew tire for my car. I was stranded in more ways than one. I am tired of companies not spending money on security to keep information such as this safe.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This has to end I have had my personal information stolen so many times that i already have the free credit monitoring. If a large company like equifax isnt held responsible it sets a bad precedent for the other companies. If i owned a large company i would make sure that everyones information was secure. Equifax failed to do so and therefore needs to pay the consumers who they hurt.

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Lori Tuttle

3 Patten Hill Road, Hillsboro, NH 03244

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Dear Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.,

I am objecting to this Equifax settlement as I do not feel it fits the "crime". I work very hard for my good credit history and am fearful that my personal data will end up in the wrong hands.

Please send a message to these big companies, and frankly any company that requests our personal information, to be more careful with our data. Otherwise, there will be expensive consequences.

I thank you for your time.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Innumerable people have suffered as a direct result of Equifax's inability to secure very personal data that was entrusted to them. Myself, and many others, gave our absolute trust, in regards to our credit and how it is processed. The pittance offered to these claimants has truly added insult to injury and I believe Equifax can and should do better.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I object to the settlement amount. My data is worth more than $5-$10. For obvious reasons, I do not want Equifax to monitor my credit. I have this service already. Equifax stated an original amount of $150-$250 per person. This is not a handout, they are not offering free money that greedy people are trying to take advantage of. People deserve fair compensation.

I have struggled so much in the past 3 years trying to find out how my identity got stolen why I no longer have 401ks with the companies I worked for and the list goes on I did what I could do to try and fix this myself thinking somehow this was my fault. Paying money I couldn't afford to Lexington Law on trying to have this all corrected. I'm not comfortable with anyone having any personal information of me and I don't feel like an oops we made your life a living hell so here's 125 bucks. I'm a disabled Veteran who tried to commit suicide over all this I still haven't recovered mentally but I'm work in progress. I never gave my consent for this company and others like it the right to own my information I don't receive payment for allowing them to hold my information all this makes me sick if the shoe was on the other foot and I lost all their money I bet they would sing a different tune.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I've had to spend hundreds of hours monitoring my financial accounts, changing passwords, and setting up anti-fraud alerts, all of which would not be necessary had Equifax properly secured the consumer data that is central to its business model. My wife and I work full time while raising two young children and every hour that I have to spend reading complex legal documents and scouring news articles about this settlement is one less hour that I get to spend with my family. This has negatively affected my quality of life, to say nothing of the stress and mental toll that this has taken on my family and I. Equifax needs to face real consequences and compensate those whose financial reputations have been put at risk.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

My personal information was taken and used fraudulently this past year to open cell phone accounts at different companies. I was able to close one fraud cell phone account quickly with Verizon but have logged over 20 hours of my life attempting to close a fraudulent cell phone account opened at Sprint. Thieves used my information to obtain 5 very expensive cell phones in my name. It is unjust that I have worked so hard to correct something that Equifax has done to me. I have two young kids and wife to attend to so my time is very precious. My information will likely be kept on file with thieves for the rest of my life. The settlement that was reached is truly unfair and inadequate that people like me cannot seek appropriate remedy.

I will not accept that Equifax, a company that makes several billion dollars a year, selling consumers data without their consent. I don't think it's fair that they can buy their way out of it with a bait-and-switch settlement offer for a fraction of the original amount. It isn't fair to the consumers and it is unreasonable. JoAnna Scroggins

1209 Hazelwood Borger, TX 79007

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

To give the people $10 for a data breach that included personal information like credit card numbers and social security numbers is a slap in the face. I have spent hours monitoring my credit since this happened, and $10 will not make up for the time lost to check my credit reports every day.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax has been trying to wriggle free from responsibility for this data breach from the moment it became publicly known. They also have worked to shift the burden of protection onto consumers. Their entire industry is based on information management. Information mis-management should have grave consequences at a time when personal data is leveraged so frequently by criminals and can have a strong negative impact on persons, through no fault of their own.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I have considered Equifax to be a trusted credit reporting bureau. In the United States, there are three major credit bureaus: Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. I was shocked to find Equifax, one of the trusted credit bureaus lost my information and they did not report it for quite awhile. I also was upset that then they were charging for identity theft protection.

I will not accept that Equifax, a company that makes several billion dollars a year, selling consumers data without their consent. I don't think it's fair that they can buy their way out of it with a bait-and-switch settlement offer for a fraction of the original amount. It isn't fair to the consumers and it is unreasonable. Please take this into consideration

Big companies need to be held accountable to consumers when they mess up. It costs the consumer much more in terms of time, money, stress and aggravation trying to straighten out and clean up the mess this company has made to our credit and credit histories.

Jenna Uhl

41 Seacliffe Rd Rochester NY 14622

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Let's make a statement to this company! We will not stand by and let this happen!!!

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The amount of administrative time I have needed to waste due to the leakage of my incredibly personal information by an entity I did not particularly want to have it is wildly uncompensated in this settlement as it has been drafted.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Millions of people were affected by this data breach. The idea that Equifax believes that this can be all taken care of is obscene. Information on the internet is forever. Our identities can be stolen now, or 10 years from now.

The minimal amount of money that people that have been affected is just a slap in the face. Companies will continue to shirk their responsibility for information security with settlements like this.
